Team Talk

Good afternoon and a warm welcome to you all for what we hope will be a fruitful 1990/91 season. At this time of the year optimism and enthusiasm run high in ninety two League Clubs - none more so than in today's opponents Bolton Wanderers. I am sure they will be looking to go one better than last season when they lost out in the play-offs.

To have a successful season you almost inevitably need to have a good solid start to the season and I am talking about nine or ten League matches not just the first two or three.

The summer was a frustrating time for myself. I had six players out of contract and did not know which ones would re-sign and which players would move on. Consequently when I was talking to other clubs or other players it was always in the knowledge that I could not sign anyone until one left this football club.

For those of you who have missed our pre-season games, I would like you to welcome to the Club our three new faces. Michael Heathcote a centre half purchased from Sunderland, Mark Blake who joined us permanently from Southampton (eventually) and John Moore, a centre forward who was plying his trade last season for F.C. Utrecht in Holland.

David Moyes joined Dunfermline Athletic early this week. Dave never gave less than 100% for Shrewsbury Town and was a help to me when I took over the Manager's chair in January. I wish him well at Dunfermline and eventually when he, as I am sure he will, moves into the coaching side of the game.

Once again enjoy this afternoon's game.

As you are now aware the cost of the matchday programme has risen to 80p.

We have for a number of years held the cost as low as possible, while other clubs have risen. This year these costs have overtaken our budget so the rise in cost could not be helped.

While all the costs of Division Three programmes are not to hand only one, to date, is below us, that being Mansfield Town at 70p. In the main they are 80p although six are £1.00 (including Gillingham) and one, Fulham, is £1.20.

We have as you see increased the number of pages to 32 so we hope that you will have better value than before.

We would also like to start a letters page. They should be written to the Programme Editor, Gay Meadow.

At a recent meeting of a Disciplinary Commission, reference was made to the report submitted by the Referee in the above match and your letter of the 23rd April, each relating to an unidentified missile allegedly having been thrown at a Linesman on the occasion of the above match.

Having given the matter due consideration, the Members agreed to accept the explanation given in your letter. However, they did suggest that your Club gives consideration to printing a suitable programme notice in the first official programme in Season 1990/91, pointing out to spectators the danger to Players/Match Officials, and other spectators, when missiles are thrown. If your Club decides to print the relevant notice, we would appreciate a copy of the programme showing it.

● MCGINLAY MOVES TO BURY

The major transfer deal of the Summer involving Shrewsbury was the £175,000 departure of striker John McGinlay to 3rd Division rival Bury.

McGinlay, who last season hit 26 goals and won the supporters club player of the year award joined Town from Elgin City for a bargain £25,000 in February 1989 and his decision to move to another third division club surprised quite a few people - so why join Bury !..... "In the end they offered me the best deal" says John, "But that's not the only reason, they aren't a big club, but they're ambitious as they have shown by the money they have spent. They got to the play-offs last year and hopefully they'll go one better this year.

I spoke to a few other clubs such as Millwall, where I think a lot of people thought I was going. My agents spoke to Hibernian, but all the confusion over the proposed merger between Hibs and Hearts put me off. I also talked to Bolton and I was due to speak to Middlesbrough the week I signed for Bury."

McGinlay was a very popular figure with the Gay Meadow fans and of the loyal Shrews supporters he says, "I had a good relationship with them and I appreciate everything they've done for me and I hope they give me a good welcome when I come back next season.

"I would like to wish Shrewsbury all the best for the new season and although I obviously want Bury to win the third division, I hope that Shrewsbury are second."

● PRAISE FROM BULLY

The performance of Shrewsbury's summer signing, Michael Heathcote in the pre-season friendly against Wolves earned praise from many supporters.

However the Gay Meadow fans were not the only people talking favourably of Michael's display in the 2-2 draw.

Wolves and England star Steve Bull was kept fairly quiet by Michael and afterwards the likeable goal ace commented. "I was very impressed with the lad marking me - he looks a very good player."

In the 70 minutes Bully played he failed to get his name on the score sheet leaving him without a goal on his two appearances at the Meadow.

The new football season has been keenly awaited by all supporters of the game -however one man who has been particularly keen to commence the campaign has been Shrewsbury midfielder Tony Kelly. Says Tony, "I've been really looking forward to the new season. We've done quite well in the pre-season friendlies and I think that since Asa Hartford and John Bond have come to the club they've really helped the lads, given them all the confidence they need and have encouraged us all to play."

"They've gone out and signed the likes of Mark Blake, Paul Wimbleton, Dean Spink, Tommy Lynch and Micky Heathcote and I just think that this could be our year".

Liverpool born Tony arrived at the Gay Meadow in a £30,000 move from West Bromwich Albion in February 1989, and he has since established himself as a firm favourite with the Shrews' fans.

He has become renowned for his passing ability, explosive shooting and clever free kicks, however early in his career it looked as though Tony might not make the grade - he takes up the story "When I was 15 I was asked to go to Liverpool, Everton and a few other clubs.

"I was at Liverpool first and then went to Everton. I had supported Everton as a boy and really wanted to play for them, but I got a letter from them one morning saying that I wasn't going to be big enough or strong enough, because when I was a kid I was quite skinny and little."

Tony battled back from that disappointment and went to Anfield and such was the impact he created on the Liverpool management, he was offered a two year apprenticeship and then a one year professional contract.

"I played alongside players like Avi Cohen, Alan Kennedy, Ian Rush, Ronnie Whelan, Bruce Grobbelaar and Steve Ogrizovic" says Tony. "It was a great experience because they taught me how to play. The way that Liverpool play they can win the Championship every year and at least I learnt at the best place".

Tony Kelly talks to Stuart Dunn

Tony was subsequently released and went to Derby County, but moved back to Merseyside because of home sickness and eventually joined Wigan Athletic and his league career was finally underway. He moved onto Stoke City for £80,000 and has since played for West Bromwich, Colchester (loan) and Chester (loan) - so How did the move to Shrewsbury come about? - "I've always been a personal friend of Ian McNeill's. When he was at Chelsea and I was at Wigan, they made a bid for me, but the deal fell through.

"He phoned me after I'd played for Colchester in the F.A.Cup against Shrewsbury and he said will you come on a month's loan, I said yes and since being at Gay Meadow I've loved every day of it".

Weight Problem

Throughout his career Tony has had what could be termed 'a weight problem', he says, "I've always had a weight problem because I have always loved my food and I always used to eat at the wrong times.

"When I came to Shrewsbury I met the physio Les Helm and he got a grip of me. He gave me a diet, which I've stuck to and I'm probably the lightest I've been for about six years".

Despite his weight loss Tony is still called every name imaginable, connected to being fat by the dressing room jokers, he explains, "Me and Willie Naughton get the bulk of the stick, they call us things like 'Sumo'. It's a good laugh though and it creates a good spirit amongst the lads".

Away from football Tony is married to Karen and they live in the Telford Estate area of Shrewsbury, he likes to relax by listening to music which ranges from Dire Straits to Meatloaf, whilst he also enjoys a game of snooker and watching television.

Tony is never totally cut off from football and he gives some of his spare time to coaching a junior team in Shrewsbury called Up and Comers.

Says Tony "I'm coach and Beacon Radio reporter Mike is manager. We didn't win a game last season and we got a bye into the semi-finals of the Consolation Cup, I said to the lads in the dressing room, if we win this game we can have a party at my house and they won 1-0".

"They had the final on the Meadow and they got beat 2-1, but did really well. The team they played in the final had beat them 8-0 and 7-0 in the league and I thought we were going to get thrashed, but we only lost 2-1 and I was really proud of them and they all came around to my house for the party."

Tony also likes cricket and he has just completed his first season with N.A.L.G.O. In the Shropshire League, "It's the first time I've ever played cricket at this level and I scored a few runs and really enjoyed it. I might step up a league next year and go and play for Wem, as the groundsman Brian Perry has asked me to go and play for them".

With the knowledge of his crickering exploits, Tony's Shrewsbury colleagues were expecting great things from him when he picked up the bat for the recent cricket match between the Town players and Wem - so what happened, Tony was out first ball!!

SHREWS' YOUTH TRAINING SCHEME

July 1989-June 1990

At the beginning of the year the Youth Squad consisted of seven in their second year, and three in their first year. They had had a rigorous and demanding experience having worked five - often long days a week, a Saturday Purity League match and sometimes another match during the week in the Midland Senior League side. Brian Williams the Youth Team Coach gave them a tough pre-season training programme and during the year the youths achieved a high level of physical fitness to pursue their football training. In addition they all received instruction in The Theory of Injury Treatment, The Theory of Football Tactics and swimming. They all took national examinations in First Aid, The Laws of the Game, Sports Leadership and English Speaking. We are pleased to report that all the youths passed the examinations. One day of each week was given to Day Release Education where instruction was given by a visiting lecturer (Mr Paul Smith) in preparation for the City and Guilds Certificate Part I (for first year trainees) and Part II (for second year trainees) for Recreation and Leisure Industries. They applied themselves to their studies and achieved these most commendable results.

Part I: Ian Ball; Sean Parrish; John Sillitoe (Distinction); Darren Ryan (Credit) and Andrew Evans(Pass).

Part II: Dale Jones; Paul Evans; Paul Bywater(Distinction); John Hay; Stephen Copeland(Credit) and Scott Thomson(Pass).

A number of the above have now left the club on the completion of their training. Although not offered terms by the club they could still achieve a place in professional football elsewhere. Their two years with the club will not have been wasted and we congratulate them on the many qualifications they have gained, which should ensure that they gain suitable employment in or outside football.

Soccer Scene

Can we climb to Division Two this season is a question that every fan of a Third Division club is currently asking. All would like to think that their team will be in the running, but which teams can in all seriousness have real hopes.

Tranmere Rovers must be to the forefront of these after last season's narrow miss on the playoffs and the cruel 'on off' of the close season when the decision over Swindon Town at first gave them side door entry so to speak and then snatched it away from them. The great news for their fans is that Chris Malkin and Ian Muir, who netted 56 goals between them last season are still with them.

Tony Philliskirk is still with today's visitors, Bolton Wanderers too as they strive to improve upon last season's playoff place and Bury manager Sam Ellis has tanked up on goalpower during the close season by his signing of our ace goalscorer, John McGinlay.

Of the teams who didn't quite make it to the playoffs Huddersfield Town look as likely as any under Eoin Hand a predecessor of Jack Charlton as Republic of Ireland manager while Rotherham's Clive Mendonca emerged as a major goalscorer last season and may make further progress this season.

Stoke City in only their second season ever in Division Three (the first time was in the old Division Three North in the twenties) and Alan Ball will not want to stay down for more than one season, but Bournemouth, who lost director Brian Tiler in a car accident in the close season may have the better balanced side - and Luther Blissett may still be a major threat in Division Three just as he was with Watford nearly 20 years ago.

Bradford City have in former Millwall boss John Docherty a man who knows a lot about winning promotion and of the teams just up from Division Four Exeter City will be a handful for anyone if striker Darren Rowbotham has recovered from the injury he sustained late last season. Steve Neville, now the player-coach there is also a prolific striker and unless they are upset by rumblings behind the scenes they could do well.

Grimsby Town under Alan Buckley moved smoothly to promotion last season and they are a well organised side without any real stars while Southend United, who are an inconsistent side despite going up last season will probably be missing David Crown (now with Gillingham) up front.

Long shots? What about Crewe Alexandra, a fine footballing side last season and blessed with a well-established and canny manager Dario Gradi who did much to lift Wimbledon in the football world. Steve Perryman has now left Brentford and one wonders whether his successor can get things together for a side who looked as good as most when at their best last season.

They are one of just ten sides with First Division experience in the current Division Three. And talking of other Divisions, Wigan Athletic are the only Third Division team who have never played in Division Two. Can Bryan Hamilton, now back at the helm, work the oracle there?

But lets not forget ourselves, there is a buzz about that the Town can produce the goods this season and get back to the high sphere where we belong.

Geoff Allman.

HELPING THE GAME

A fine new stand – one of the many initiatives supported by Trust funds.

The Football Trust 1990 has been created to help the game at all levels and to assist clubs meet the requirements of Lord Justice Taylor's Final Report.

Safety and comfort for all spectators is the primary objective and substantial funds have been made available for the provision of seating at Football League grounds. At the same time the Trust's commitment to family and community initiatives will continue with the provision of more family enclosures, better toilet facilities, covered accommodation, artificial pitches for local use and the development of women's and junior football particularly through community programmes, plus a wide range of policing and crowd control measures.

Each year The Trust expects to receive £20 million from the reduction in Pool Betting Duty plus the £10 million continuing contribution from the Spotting-the-Ball competition organised by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters. This money will be invested in projects which benefit football throughout the United Kingdom.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

There was a shock midway through the first half of our game with Swindon here on August 27th, 1960 when a shot from Ernie Hunt went through the side netting, but referee Duxbury of Preston realised that it had passed through a hole and the 'goal' was disallowed and running repairs carried out. Soon afterwards, however, Mike Summerbee crossed for Ken Mellor to head home and Swindon led at half-time.

We battled back after the break and equalised in unusual circumstances when Ray Ambler miscued a shot, but the ball ran perfectly for Colin Whitaker to slot it home. Sustained pressure failed to add to our score and we had to be satisfied with a 1-1 draw, leaving us with just two points from our first three games.

SHREWSBURY: Miller; Hobson; Skeece; Harley; Wallace; Walters; Baker; Pountney; Ambler; Rowley; Whitaker

SWINDON: Burton; Wollen; Trollope; Morgan; Owen; Woodruff; Summerbee; Hunt; Mellow; Jackson; Chamberlain.

Bolton meanwhile had only one point to show from their first three games after Peter Deakin had got their consolation goal in a 2-1 defeat at West Ham. At one stage in this game Bobby Moore picked up the ball thinking referee Peter Brandwood had awarded a free-kick. In fact he hadn't and so he awarded one against Moore for hands.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

After beating Rotherham 4-2 here in our opening game we picked up a point in a 2-2 draw with Bristol Rovers at Eastville on August 22nd, 1970. There were two goals in just over a minute early in the game when after Robin Stubbs had put the home side ahead George Andrews crossed perfectly for Jim McLoughlin to equalise.

After the break a Terry Harkin shot was pushed out and George Andrews followed up to score, but just as we seemed capable of taking both points Carl Gilbert equalised with ten minutes to go.

SHREWSBURY: Toozie; Gregory; Fellows; Moore; Wood; Moir; Roberts; Bridgwood; Andrews; Harkin; McLoughlin.

Attendance: 8,994

Bolton meanwhile after winning their first two games crashed 4-0 at Portsmouth, those being the days of Gordon Taylor and Terry Wharton on the wings while after this game Peter Clarke lost his place in goal to our former keeper Alan Boswell.

TEN YEARS AGO

August 23rd, 1980 saw us battling hard to take a point from Chelsea in a 2-2 draw here. We had taken the lead in the 10th minute when Jimmy Jones scored but the Blues equalised in the 20th minute when they scored through Alan Hargrove. Jimmy Jones scored again in the 45th minute to put us back in front but the Blues equalised again in the 75th minute when they scored through Alan Hargrove. Jimmy Jones scored again in the 85th minute to put us back in front but the Blues equalised again in the 90th minute when they scored through Alan Hargrove.

After the break we battled back for Steve Biggins to cross the ball into the netting and Jimmy Jones scored to put us back in front but the Blues equalised again in the 85th minute when they scored through Alan Hargrove.

Looking Back Forty Years

(By Retired Sports Writer Stan Hall)

Many of the middle aged and older Shrewsbury Town supporters will to-day be casting back their minds forty years.

No need to remind them that 1950 saw Town's first season in the Football League and after a goalless draw at Scunthorpe on August 9th, they had entertained and beaten Wrexham 2-1 on the following Monday with goals by Bobbie Brown & Arnold Jackson.

That was not such a bad start to the Town's first season in the old Northern Section of the Third Division. But it was not to last and, indeed, they lost the next seven matches, scoring only two goals (by Dave Robinson and Harry Smale, who returned to make his home in the town and is well known in bowling circles). In those seven matches they conceded 16 goals, five of them away to Rochdale.

However, Sammy Crooks, of former Derby County and England fame, who joined the club that year as secretary/manager, made two important signings in wing halves (as they were known in those days) Jimmy Bullions, surely one of the best and most popular players ever to don Town's colours, and Ron Crutchley.

The Good Points

The result was that Shrewsbury finished the season fifth from bottom with 37 points while Accrington Stanley & New Brighton (no longer in the League) having to seek re-election. Because of their geographical position, Shrewsbury moved next season to the more popular, and financially lucrative, Southern Section of the Football League.

The result was that the average home attendance rose from 9,091 to 9,818 (How the club would like those sort of averages these days), while away average attendances rose even more significantly - from 8,856 to 12,421.

I expect many of the older Town supporters will remember the team for the Town's first Football League match. But for those with memories like mine these days (I have my records to refer to!), here it is: Pat Egglestone, Peter Fisher; Norman Lewis (local player); Joe Wheatley; Roland Depear; Dave Robinson; Frank Griffin (who will forget his FA Cup final winner for West Bromwich Albion and he is one of a number who returned to live in the Town); Eric

Backtracking

Hope (a Shropshire man); Arnold Jackson; Bobbie Brown; Robert Barker; with long service and local winger Jackie Butler as 12th man.

In that first season, Shrewsbury included 21 players in their League matches and three of those - Roland Depear (captain), Pat Egglestone and Bobby Brown - made the full 46 appearances.

In addition Jimmy Bullions and Ron Crutchley did not miss a league match after being signed a few weeks after the season opened.

Top Scorers

Town's 39 league goals that season were scored by no less than 13 players with Bobbie Brown easily top scorer with 15 followed by Arnold Jackson with six.

Incidentally Town's entry into the Football League brought considerably increased interest throughout the county as indicated by the fact that in Shropshire Senior Cup matches in 1950/51, a semi-final match away to Wellington Town (now Telford United) attracted 6,035 while the final against Oswestry at the Gay Meadow drew 7,259. Next season, the Town's semi-final match away to Wellington drew 8,599 while the final at home to Oswestry attracted 10,256.

We are sure that all these figures haven't been too boring and they certainly raise some very interesting discussions and speculations. We are indebted to Stan Hall for writing this forward to our look at "40 Years of League Football at Gay Meadow".

SHREWS' HISTORY SEASON BY SEASON 1950/51

This was the season when we joined the Northern Section of the Division Three together with Scunthorpe, increasing the number of teams there from 22 to 24.

We won our first-ever Football League game here against Wrexham and avoided a re-election application by five points. Our last games of the season brought us a 4-2 win over a New Brighton side who were playing what turned out to be their last ever Football League game.

Bolton

Today we welcome one of the great names in football, the Wanderers from Bolton, who may have spent recent seasons in Division Three and Four but who are a club with a remarkable history.

They were one of the twelve founder-members of the Football League in 1888. They finished fourth behind Aston Villa, Derby and Everton in 1895/96 and though relegated in 1899 they bounced straight back up again. They went down again in 1903, climbed back up again in 1905 and twice more before the First World War they showed this happy capacity of bouncing straight back up again after relegation.

Their real glory days came in the twenties however, beating West Ham in that first-ever Wembley final and going on to show their liking for the new stadium by chalking up three F.A.Cup wins in seven seasons. Goalkeeper Dick Pym, who was a native of Cornwall and lived into his nineties was goalkeeper in all three finals.

The thirties brought another brief sortie into Division Two for two seasons and then came the longest unbroken spell in Division One. In the war years they reached the 1946 Wartime final and did battle with Manchester United, Nat Lofthouse having by this time emerged as a powerful striker.

Nat was still playing when they finished fifth in Division One in 1951/52, and again in 1953/54. In between they had lost 4-3 to Blackpool in the 1953 F.A.Cup final, but

Wanderers

BOLTON WANDERERS THIS SEASON

they made amends in 1957/58 when beating the post-Munich Manchester United at Wembley to win the trophy for the fourth time, helped by that controversial Nat Lofthouse second goal.

1964 saw their decline really begin for relegation to Division Two was followed by their first taste of Division Three in the early seventies for two seasons. By 1978 they had climbed back to Division One under Ian Greaves, but there has been no such return since they slipped to Division

Two again in 1980. They slipped to Division Three in 1983 and to Division Four in 1987.

Since then things have improved again. Phil Neal led them back to Division Three in 1988 and the following season saw them finishing tenth in Division Three and winning the Sherpa Van Trophy 4-1 against Torquay at Wembley. They also enjoyed a club record run of 20 games without defeat.

Last season they looked good for promotion until a disastrous run of only one win in seven games. This left them in the playoffs in which they went out 3-1 to Notts County in the semi-final.

Already they have beaten Blackpool 2-0 in a pre-season game with Tony Philliskirk, the former Sheffield United, Oldham and Preston man who got 24 goals last season, netting two penalties. David Reeves (ex-Sheffield Wednesday) and Julian Darby, an established homegrown player, reached double figures last season and will need watching today.

Mike Jeffrey is an up and coming striker while joining Darby in midfield we may see Paul Comative (ex-Wrexham and Burnley) and Stuart Storer, who once moved from Birmingham to Everton in a much-publicised transfer deal together with Wayne Clarke. Rob Savage is another much-travelled player now in his third season while in defence Barry Cowdrill came from West Bromwich Albion three seasons ago. Gary Brown came from Blackburn in 1988 and Phil Brown from Halifax Town a few months later.

David Burke is now back for his second spell with the club after spells with Huddersfield Town and Crystal Palace while Dean Crombie has many years of experience with Grimsby Town behind him. In goal David Felgate was first with Bolton in 1978 and is now in his third spell having twice moved to Grimsby and having twice returned. This is his fourth season of his current spell.

Geoff Allman.

Made his debut as a 17 year old in March 1989 but failed to hold down a regular spot in the side. Was last seasons leading scorer for the reserves.

IAN STEVENS - Forward

Spent the summer playing in Finland but still has to force his way into the team after joining the club in 1987. Began his career at Preston before spending a short time with Stockport County.

Spotted by cameraman Matthew Ashton, we see our doctor geared for the weather when we played Barnsley. No physio so the 'doc' took the sponge - and his shorts, to attend to a Shrews' player.

Below we see members of the first team squad outside the Danehurst Leisure Centre before an energy sapping run up the Church Stretton Hills before relaxing in the Hotel's indoor pools for some pre-season training.

The Mighty Red Machine is about to suck in another fragment of Football's future. Sadly, the chances are that the outcome will be the neutralization of another promising career. Another key contribution to the greater long-term good of the game will be squandered - at least temporarily.

Mr. K. Dalglish, Manager of the mighty Anfield mob, is reputed to be keen on luring "the boy" Redknapp from Bournemouth. Jamie aged 17, is the "fruit" of manager Harry's loins. He has played a solitary league game for The Cherries, but by all accounts, he shows enough promise to have convinced Liverpool F.C. that they should consider investing a tidy sum in securing his signature.

For the Anfield Club, consideration of the risk element in the transaction pales into insignificance when judged against the dreadful prospect of another club stepping in first to snap up the merchandise in question. Horror of horrors, Everton are supposed to be in on the chase. After all, they do now have as assistant manager erstwhile Bournemouth coach and sometime hard Toffee Jimmy Gabriel. He knows an awful lot about young Jamie.

So, the fight is on. Once more, the fat cats are scrapping over the cream of football's future. Would you bet against Liverpool getting their paws on the morsel first? They have a history of snapping up precious youth and losing it in the depths of their system.

Who remembers Wayne Harrison once 'opeful of Oldham and for seasons anonymous of Anfield?

Does anyone recall Steve Harkness, onetime babe of Brunton, but who exchanged a high profile at Carlisle for the low life of Liverpool?

Before them we recall the likes of Stuart Mason, Peter Wall, Steve Ogrizovic, Kevin Sheedy and many more, who were all gobbled from smaller clubs "on the off chance" and who wallowed in the Central League (or lower) before escaping.

These expensive purchases seem to have no greater opportunity for graduation to the Anfield first team than do the countless other youngsters snaffled up through more conventional routes of junior soccer. And if you analyse the contents of Liverpool's senior sides over many years you won't find many examples of "unheard of youth makes good".

As the wife's old fella says: "Liverpool don't win their honours -they buy them".

As football conveyor belts go Liverpool is strictly Enfield as compared to the Suzuki of a Manchester City.

The Reds, of course, are not alone. There are other Clubs that are rich enough -and who exert only slightly less glamorous appeal than the champions - to ensure that the bulk of ball playing bairns from the lower reaches are brought in like bees around a honey pot.

And it's all wrong.

Surely Redknapp Snr. must realise that his progeny's best interests would not be served in the nether regions of a First Division set-up. Sure, he could rub shoulders with class. But far better if that class, in turn, was better distributed between the clubs such that Redknapp junior could encounter it at Dean Court, where he also has a much greater opportunity for League action. How much better to gain experience in front of a few thousand in the Third Division than before a dog, a cat, and a budgie crammed into Melwood, Belfield or wherever.

All this, I guess, could be construed as sour grapes. No so -not really!

Intuitively I know that the greater good of the English game would be better served by not having a League dominated by a handful of clubs. We desperately need a league in which all clubs are genuinely equal. At the start of the season they should all start within a division truly with the same opportunity for success. The League should be of a uniformly high standard -one which would comprise a rich larder upon which Chief Chef Taylor could draw to create worldbeating fare. Consumer interest would boom -money would come flooding into the clubs' coffers. How best to use it?

I think we have sufficient coaching expertise to stock up 92 League clubs. What remains is to equalise playing strengths and to circumvent the wealthiest "banking" all the talent even though they have no intention of taking advantage of it. Any system stinks which enables a club to take out of circulation in a player merely to prevent someone else from securing his services.

The three aspects demanding consideration are payments, transfer fees and pool sizes.

Payments

All footballers should be paid a salary which is commensurate with their responsibilities as entertainers and their relative divisional status. Regulated win bonuses should be permitted, but the main incentive payments should come from a pool administered by the Football League. All clubs should pay into the pool in proportion to their League standing and draw bonuses from it at the season's end in accordance with their final position. The pool could be topped by sponsorship.

The scale of remuneration should be set at a level sufficient to ensure retention of the best (and most loyal) players in England. Only footballers playing for a Football League club should be considered for the English Team.

Transfer fees

Transfers should still be allowed -but they should be restricted to the close season- they should directly reflect a players proven worth (League appearances, honours, years service etc) and as now, all fees should be paid up front in cash. Any player for whose registration a fee changes hands should be assured (health permitting) a minimum of ten League games a season.

Playing pools

At the start of a season a club must register 22 players (with League experience) maximum for League duty. Any number of youngsters emerging through a club's junior sides (and who have never signed a professional form for another League club) may be registered for League action. A maximum of two loan transfers should be permitted per season.

I'm sure that these simple measures would go a long way to ensuring that football in the future will not stagnate, will assume a higher quality profile and will just as likely feature Maidstone versus Darlington fighting it out for the League Championship and Liverpool and Manchester United squabbling over 92nd spot and a drop into the Conference.

The Fat Cats would never let it happen?

Looking at Shrew's Programmes

SHREWSBURY v BOLTON WANDERERS - November 26th, 1971

We look back today to our first-ever Football League encounter with today's visitors and to a 12-page programme plus the 24-page Football League Review supplement.

Manager Harry Gregg welcomed Wanderers on page 3 on their first-ever visit to the Gay Meadow, and Malcolm Starkey on page 9 welcoming two men with a Bolton-Shrewesbury link, Edger Roberts, a former player, and Walter Rowley a former manager for both clubs.

The game ended in a 1-0 for us with Alf Wood scoring in the first half and 6,605 here to see it.

Geoff Allman.

Focus on Bolton Wanderers

THIS is the first visit that Bolton Wanderers have made to the Gay Meadow. We welcome the officials and players and look forward to a good game with them. Their Manager, Mr. Armfield, will select his team from the following players:

Charlie Wright. Goalkeeper who came to Bolton on a free transfer from Charlton Athletic during the close season. A Scot from Glasgow, Charlie has played for Rangers, Workington and Grimsby before moving to Charlton.

John Ritson. Joined the Wanderers from school. He graduated through the club's junior sides before making his debut in 1967. Was the first choice right back last season.

Henry Mowbray. A Scot from Cowdenbeath where he played before signing for Blackpool. Henry was another of Jimmy Armfield's close season signings.

Alan Waldron. Yet another youngster who joined the club from school. A brother of Burnley's Colin, he made his debut against Orient last season.

Paul Jones. Tall youngster who comes from Ellesmere Port. He is only 18, but is one of the most promising of the club's young players. Usually operates in the back four.

Warwick Rimmer. Utility man who does his best work in the back four. Born in Tranmere and an England schoolboy international, he is another player who came through the club's junior sides.

Peter Nicholson. Just 20 years of age, Peter started his career with Carlisle before moving to Blackpool. A defender who is capable of playing in several positions.

Ian Seddon. Former skipper of the club's youth side who won a place in the first team last season. A midfield player he is still only 20 and it is now three seasons since he made his debut against Rotherham.

Garry Jones. Born in Wythenshawe, made his debut at Huddersfield in 1969. Made a number of appearances as a striker last season.

Roy Greaves. Versatile player who played in most positions last season. He is probably at his best when used as a striker.

Chris Duffy. Liverpool born winger who has only had a handful of games in the first team. Another product of the club's youth policy.

John Byrom. Made a hit in League soccer with Blackburn Rovers. Joined Bolton for a £25,000 fee five years ago.

John Hulme. Tall centre half, who lost his place when Charlie Hurley joined the club two seasons ago—but won it back! Was playing better than ever at the end of last season.

Roger Hunt. England international who won everlasting fame in the 1966 World Cup. Came to the Wanderers for a £33,000 fee from Liverpool two seasons ago.

Ron Phillips. A tough, wiry player who is at home either on the wing or in midfield.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By HARRY GREGG

AS you well know now we had an excellent win at Colchester in the First Round of the Cup last Saturday. I was very happy with the result, especially as so many teams have suffered setbacks at Layer Road over a very long period of time. The win was brought about by a complete team effort from the players, all wanting the ball and all running for each other.

The Last Word

Goalkeepers are never far out of the news, but recent weeks have seen them getting more than their share of headlines with Jim Leighton rather unlucky to be blamed for Scotland's early exit from the World Cup and even Peter Shilton in his last international before his voluntary retirement from that exalted scene making an error though by that time England were playing only for third place kudos. Meanwhile on the transfer front David Seaman set up a new record for a custodian when moving from QPR to Arsenal and even the man he has replaced, John Lukic, was deemed worth more than a million when moving back to Leeds. Then just to make it a hat-trick of million pound goalkeepers Tony Coton cost more than that when leaving Watford for Manchester City where he succeeds to the gloves, so to speak, once worn by Frank Swift and Bert Trautmann, two of the greatest 'keepers of all time.

All of which underlines just how highly goalkeepers are valued these days after for many seasons being relatively poor relations in the transfer market. The reasons for this high valuation are also there to be seen in the World Cup incidents referred to. For goalkeepers errors are costly to the ninth degree and any good goalkeeper needs not only a lot of ability but also the run of the ball. This was perfectly illustrated in Saturday's Charity Shield game when Bruce Grobbelaar failed to hold a powerful low drive just as Jim Leighton did in the World Cup. Luckily for Bruce the ball rolled only a short distance away and he just snapped it up before any eager striker could descend. He was rightly praised for a good save, but the save was no better than the Leighton one - only the outcome.

GOALKEEPERS ARE IN THE NEWS

---

Tony Coton must also be reflecting on the ups and downs of goalkeeper esteem for he is the player who over a decade ago made a penalty save against Liverpool with his first touch of the ball in the Football League. Only a few years after that he was superfluous to Ron Saunders' requirements at St. Andrews and sold rather quickly to Watford a something of a liability because of alleged off the field episodes. It is to Coton's credit that he has settled down to be a key factor in Watford's maintenance of their position as either a First Division or upper Second Division club after so many years in the lower echilons of the Football League.

It will be very interesting to see how Seaman, Lukic and Coton fare in Division One this season -will they be rivalling Everton's Neville Southall for the unofficial label and the best goalkeeper in the Football League? Neville like many another outstanding goalkeeper began his Football League life in the lower Divisions with a relatively unfashionable club, Bury in his case. Several from Sam Hardy to Gordon Banks originated with Chesterfield while Walsall produced Bert Williams before the war, Phil Parkes in the sixties and Mark Wallington (still active with Lincoln last season) in the seventies. Harry Gregg that great Irish goalkeeper of the fifties began with Doncaster while another outstanding irishman Pat Jennings began with Watford when they were a Third Division club.

And talking of internationals, who will the new England man be - will it be Chris Woods, who has already shown up well at that level? Will David Seaman or Dave Beasant edge in front. Or what about Nigel Martyn, another to have his football League origins out of the limelight at Bristol Rovers just as Dave Beasant had his at Wimbledon in their Fourth Division days. Could it be that goalkeepers in the lower Divisions are all the better for coming up the hard way? And who will be the exciting new goalkeepers to emerge this season. We shall doubtless be seeing some of them here.
